

Mary Ann Fockler, 94, will be one of the oldest of Whitchurch township residents and former residents who will celebrate the township's 100th anniversary this weekend. She is seen holding her great-grand-nephew, Keith Fockler. The two day Centennial celebrations will be Saturday and Sunday. A motor cavalcade forming at Davis Dr., Newmarket, Saturday morning at 10 p.m. will stop at Newmarket and Aurora for a short tribute to the Centennial by each municipality.

WHO SHALL PAY?

Committee to study Newmarket growth, Town's payment on subdivision services

Reeve Arthur D. Evans questioned whether Newmarket has been doing the right thing by supplying services to new subdivisions under a local improvement plan. According to Mr. Evans, in most other municipalities a contractor who opens a new subdivision has to pay the cost of water and sewage himself.

It was suggested at the council meeting Monday night that the committee set up recently to look into annexation of more land into the town, also consider the subdivision problem.

In Newmarket, subdivisions have been opened by private interests. They have asked town council to put in sewers and water services. So far it has been the policy of the town to install services under a local improvement plan. The owner of the property must then pay back a percentage of the cost over a period of time.

Mr. Evans said that the fact that services are already installed, it makes it easier for subdivision owner to sell off his houses. In many other municipalities the owner must pay for the services himself.

"The town has just been acting as a fairy godmother to anybody who wants to open a subdivision," said Mayor Vale.

"A man with a new subdivision comes along and persuades the town to put in services under a local improvement plan," said the mayor. "Then he sells each house with an extra charge on the sale price because there are services to go with them. But it is the people who buy the houses who have to pay for them back to the town. They are the ones who are assessed and they are actually paying for the services twice."

The committee set up by council to look for annexation possibilities outside of the town limits as yet has not made any report to council. The reason for annexing more land, council has indicated, is to offset piecemeal additions to the town.

"You can call it what you like but this can be considered as town planning," said Mr. Evans.

Four Aurora employees Sign for retirement plan

Five of six eligible civic employees have signed up for Aurora's new Municipal Retirement Plan.

Of the present 12 employees, six are not eligible either for reasons of age or the fact that they have not been for one year continuously on the town's payroll. The first deduction from employee pay cheques was made Monday as the plan went into effect. Added to this is 5 percent which the town contributes.

The plan at its inception is optional. Any future applicants for jobs will be informed that the retirement plan is compulsory. Three insurance firms tendered for the contract which was awarded to the North American Life Insurance Company.

Talking of plowing matches, Look to Timbers family again

Newmarket and district plowmen are watching the Timbers family this fall, wondering which one of them is going to take honors in this year's International Plowing matches.

Ed Timbers from Milliken was an overseas trip winner at the beginning of the war, but the world situation prevented him from taking the trip. Fred Timbers, councillor on Whitchurch Council, was a winner in '48 and Bob Timbers, his nephew, came out on top in '48. The Timbers family has proven itself the "plowiest" family in the district, and rumor has it that there are a few more winners preparing for this year's competition.

The 1950 International matches take place at Nottawasaga Valley Farms in Tecumseh Township near Alliston, October 11, 12, and 13. At a special ceremony on October 11 Hon. W. E. Harris, minister of citizenship and immigration, will officially open the annual event and tour the "tented city" that will house the latest in equipment and labor saving devices for the farmer. Premier Leslie Frost will be the guest speaker at a banquet in the Beeton Community arena on the 13th, marking the close of the plowman's classic.

Winners in both the horse and tractor Esso Champions Trans-Atlantic classes at the match will be awarded gold medals and a four-weeks' tour of the British Isles with all expenses paid.

Second prize winners in the Trans-Atlantic classes, which are sponsored by Imperial Oil, will each receive a silver medal and $150 in cash. Twelve other cash prizes will be awarded in each class.

The tractor competition is open to all "Esso Champions" Tractor Special" winners at Ontario Plowmen's Association branch matches and all plowmen from other provinces. Previous Trans-Atlantic trip winners will not be eligible.

In the horse-drawn plow class all plowmen who qualified at branch matches after October 15, 1948 may compete. Gold medal winners in this class in previous years will not be eligible. This class is also open to plowmen from other provinces in Canada.

SCHOOL ACCOMMODATION

Star story false, Want co-operation - Board chairman

A news story in the Toronto Daily Star on Wednesday reported that five Roman Catholic children had been barred from attendance at the Newmarket public schools kindergarten. "The story is completely false," said Mrs. Valentine Seldon, chairman of the board.

"We have no legal right to bar any child from public school if his parents are public school supporters," she said. "What misunderstanding there was arose over the question of the status of the parents."

There were four applications for children to attend public school kindergarten. In two instances, there were older children already attending separate school, a fact which would automatically make the parents separate school supporters. These applications could not be accepted legally. In the third instance, the parents were given an opportunity to state whether they were public or separate school supporters.

In the fourth instance, the child is a Roman Catholic but the parents are listed as public school supporters. That child has been accepted for kindergarten.

It was the applications of these four children which raised the question of whether or not Roman Catholic children could be accepted in public school kindergarten. K. M. R. Stiver, solicitor for the board, said that the board had assumed the application of the fourth child was intended for the separate school. When the child's parents pointed out that they were public school supporters, the application was permitted and the other three objected.

There is no question of the public school board's attitude towards co-operation with the separate school board, said Mrs. Seldon. Past history shows that. Until it was closed two years ago because of overcrowding, separate and public school children shared the same manual training classes.

"I am happy to go on record too to say that if accommodation permitted, and the question of cost could be settled, the public school board would be pleased to offer what facilities were available for the use of the separate school," said Mrs. Seldon.

"At present, however, our accommodation, even with the new school, is strained. We were obliged to move nine children from the kindergarten class into grade one so that the kindergarten class would be less overcrowded. In varying degrees, the same situation exists in all our classes."

Mt. Albert humbled, Zephyr new champs

Mount Albert's reign as champion of the Lake Simcoe softball league came to an abrupt halt last Friday. Zephyr "Blues" filed the abdication papers that sent Mount reeling from its throne. Game four was an 8-3 win for the Blues, the best of five series being a Zephyr triumph three games to one.

Indeed the Blues are worthy champs. Behind the impetus of some steady chucking from side-wheeling Ron Kester and good fielding work which the Mounties failed to show, they ticked off Hope in two, had to go all out to put the powerhouse swingers from Keswick off their trail and then rose to the heights by taking the measure of the Mounties.

Now just for a twinkling it did appear in that fourth game that Ron Kester was in for a stormy session. His first pitch of the game was maybe just a little too good. Joe Case up and poled it over Bill Lockie's head in right for a base circle. Ron then got back in the groove to ride herd on the Mount scoring until Ross Draper got away to a perfect away Harold Watts blasted out a long liner that went all the way in centre. That two-run production brought Mount within one run of the equalizer.

The Blues knotted Mount's first innings tally in the second as Bill Lockie lofted a bloop over third to score Gord Rynard on board after singling. The Blues got to Mitch's offerings in the third with short-swinging Don Hewlett chopping one down the middle for the main sock in a three-run fourth innings rally.

In the sixth things really went screwy for the Mounties. A couple of infield bobbles followed by Ken Pickering's and Carl Myers' side by side doubles plunked four runs on score sheet to send the Blues up 8-3. Ron Kester with solid fielding support cleaned up his doorstep in the seventh to chill the Mounties' last hopes and write finish to another softball campaign.

In the after the game ceremonies president Ross Chapman carried out his duties with dispatch presenting the Stan Cook trophy to Ron Kester, captain of the Blues. Manager Moe Bain making his maiden speech in acceptance, expressed the wish of all Zephyr fans "the first of many such occasions we hope".

Mount players headed by Ken Mitchell were first over to shake the hand of the new champs and thus the curtain rang down on '50 season in the Simcoe circuit. Congratulations, Zephyr.

'Conversion' takes over Size of paper limited

This issue of The Era and Express has been limited to ten pages. Because of the conversion to 60 cycle power at The Era and Express, typesetting time on the linotypes was limited. Machinery had to be stopped entirely all day Monday and additional cut-offs were also necessary.

Because of the limited time, space was not available for some of the news. No news space was available after Wednesday noon and correspondents will realize that copy arriving after this time could not be used.

In all, over 15 electric motors on machinery at The Era have been converted for 60 cycle power.

Sports editor George Haskett says "We'll catch up with you next week." Sports news had to be cut severely.

OAK RIDGES SUGGESTS SCHOOL AREA

An enrolment of 385 at Oak Ridges school with prospect of a further increase caused what was described by trustee Horace Brown, an emergency situation. Registration is well over a 100 over last year. Faced with the tremendous increase on the board meetings were held last week, launching appeals for financial help to the education department and the township councils of Whitchurch and King.

A plan submitted by principal John Martin for the arrangement of classes was accepted by the board on September 6 "with full-day basis." While the syllable alternative to necessary financial aid that has not been forthcoming from the township councils of King and Whitchurch and the department of education." The motion was made by Horace Brown, seconded by Frank Legge, chairman of the trustee board.

"The township school area is the answer to the problem," Mr. Brown stated. "The township councils of King and Whitchurch have refused to consider such an area throwing the problem back to the inadequate finances of thinly populated and under-assessed areas."

The plan to stagger classes suggested by Mr. Martin has been approved by the school board "only until such time as the school board can make suitable arrangement for all pupils on a full-day basis." While the system of staggered classes is not new for this school, the present schedule is worked out to meet the emergency need. There are about 140 in the three grade I and two grade II classes.

One of the many concerns of the school board is the protection of children crossing Yonge St. to and from the school. On the opening day of school inspector Witt of the Ontario provincial police was on hand to study the situation. Mr. Legge said a satisfactory solution is likely to come from the investigation.

Morley Patterson speaks To Aurora Lions club

Buttons for 100 percent attendance during the past year were awarded to 40 members of Aurora Lions club Monday night at the first meeting of the season. Five members also received their five year perfect attendance buttons.

The new president, Charlie Petersen, was in the chair assisted by Archie Cousins, immediate past president. Harold Pringle introduced the speaker of the evening, Morley Patterson, sales manager of communications division Rogers Majestic Radio Company. Mr. Patterson, who attended school in Aurora during the time his father was in charge of Aurora United church, was the former principal of Radio College of Canada and is a member of the Association of Professional Engineers. He demonstrated two way telephone systems for cars and walkie-talkies. Following his address, Lions became quite proficient in operating the apparatus. A vote of thanks was moved to the speaker by Garnet Barragar.

Ralph Tucker reported that the Wilkie fund is well within sight of the $2,000 mark. Final arrangements for the Lions club participation in Whitchurch centennial were completed.

All members of the Legion are requested to fall in at the Lions park Sunday, Sept. 17, at 1.15 p.m. to parade to a service at memorial arena.

By-law will start High school wing, Finished by March

A new wing on Newmarket high school is expected to be started this fall. Three members of the Newmarket-Sutton district high school board told town council Monday night that a tender for the contract had been received for $10,000 below the original estimated cost. Chairman of the board, A. N. Belugin, said that a contractor, James Kemp, Hamilton, had submitted a tender for $85,000.

The Ontario municipal board has given tentative approval on the plan for the new wing according to Mr. Belugin. "If council gives us its official approval, we can go ahead and break the ground for the new construction," he said. "The municipal board has given its tentative approval for spending $95,000 and it is likely that it will approve of $85,000."

"The department of education said that once council gives approval of the debenture the board can go ahead and make the arrangements with the contractor," said Mr. Belugin.

Reeve Arthur D. Evans said that council had approved of the expenditure in principle on a previous occasion. It is expected that council will pass the required by-law at the next meeting.

The board has been working toward a new wing most of this year. The decision for the added building had been made last winter and the board has been working on details ever since. The town of Newmarket will issue the total debentures and other municipalities in the school area will pay back their share according to assessment. Mr. Belugin has indicated that it will require a very small expenditure for Newmarket.

"The Kemp construction company is now engaged in some work at Bradford," said Mr. Belugin. "It will be easier to bring equipment to Newmarket. The company has constructed buildings for the University of Toronto and also a sewage disposal plant in Peterborough previously. Tenders were closed August 22."

"The construction company has promised that if it is given the O.K. right away, it will be finished with the new wing by next March," he said.

The new wing will provide accommodation for extra classes in shop training, domestic science and agricultural studies.

SCOUT NEWS

Owing to the Scout hall being occupied at present the first Newmarket troop will not begin its meetings until October.

Dramatic club presents Old fashioned 'drama'

The Newmarket Dramatic club announced this week that its first production this year will be an old fashioned melodrama. It is to be complete with a beautiful heroine, villain and barber shop quartet. Plans call for production in the town hall on November 3 and 4.

The club decided to develop a workshop group this year. Plans are for development of new members and experimental work. The executive has urged potential members to get in touch with the club.

AT BAR MEETINGS

N. L. Mathews, K.C., Newmarket, will be attending a joint meeting of the American and Canadian Bar Associations at Washington next week. Mr. Mathews also will be lecturing to a section of the American Bar Association on industrial relations. This year he is lecturing at Osgoode Hall to third year students on labor law.

New manager A. McKay At Bank of Toronto

A. C. Lord, retiring manager of the Bank of Toronto branch in Newmarket, was presented with a gift by town council Monday night. Mayor Joseph Vale presented Mr. Lord with a pen and pencil set and expressed appreciation for the help and services he had given the town.

Mr. Lord introduced the new manager, Alex. McKay, to the members of council. Mr. McKay was an accountant in the same bank previously. He left Newmarket in 1940 and now returns ten years later as manager.

ARENA FLOOR READY FOR LIONS DANCE

The Garla Flooring Company employees moved into the Newmarket arena Wednesday afternoon to put the finishing touches on the mastic flooring recently installed by them. Wednesday they were running a small roller over the floor.

Following this part of the operations the floor is given two coats of a near white shade of paint and finished off with a borax top coat.

Everything should be in readiness for the big dance, the opening affair on the completed floor, sponsored by the Lions Club Friday evening.

At the town council meeting on Monday night, a request was made by Councillor J. O. Dales for pavement at the entrance of the building. Mr. Dales asked for asphalt pavement along the arena frontage from the edge of the building to the roadway. He added that there are plans for a marquee on the arena entrance in the future.

Arrest Sutton youngsters After cottage break-ins

Four Sutton youngsters will appear in Toronto juvenile court this week on charges of break-entry and theft. Chief Constable Stan James, Sutton, and Constable Bud Gilby arrested the four juveniles after a series of cottage and boat house robberies had netted the youths more than $100 worth of fishing tackle and rods.

The boys, ages ten, 11, 11 and 13, broke into three cottages on the Black River during the week of their arrest. Several boat houses were also entered.

Pickering college starts term, J. B. Bastedo new staff member

School life began this morning for 150 boys from various parts of the world at Pickering College. Although teachers gathered over a week ago for staff meetings, students did not arrive until the beginning of this week. Students of last year arrived Tuesday, and the new ones came on Wednesday.

There are several changes in the staff of the college this year, including the addition of J. B. Bastedo, once principal of Newmarket high school. He will be teaching Latin. Sydney Webster is replacing Mr. McLaren, who has returned to university for further study. Mr. Webster comes from the West Indies and has been studying at McGill University.

Bill Capes has been replaced by Bill Armstrong, St. John's school, Winnipeg. Also from that school comes the new nurse, Mrs. Ruth Ellecker. Charles Bryant is another westerner, from Lethbridge, Alta., who is joining the teaching staff.

"Old Boys" returning to work at the college include Charles Beer, brother of the present assistant headmaster, Mr. Harry Beer. Alan Wylie and Bill Richardson from last year's graduating class have come back to act as tutors in the preparatory department.

Work has been done on the buildings and grounds this summer, and the new football field, behind the main building, is now ready for use. A completely new heating system has been installed and shower rooms have been remodelled.

WINS CONTEST IN WHEAT CLUB

The results of the 50 Bushel Wheat club contest in York county have been announced with Chas. Casey, King, R. R. 3, repeating his win of last year by a narrow margin over Frank Marriott, Keswick, with 225.8 and 225.2 points respectively. While the Marriott field scored one point higher on general field score, Mr.
Casey's higher yield brought him a higher total.

The scoring allows 100 points for field score to include purity of variety, freedom from weeds, disease and other grains, uniformity and strength of straw, plus two points for each bushel on the basis of a computed yield. The heads are cut by hand representative places in the field and sent to the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, to be threshed and computed.

The three highest yields were Chas. Casey, King, R. R. 3, 69.9
bus., Frank Marriott, Keswick, 69 bus., and Norman Payne, Maple, 68.3. However, Leitchcroft Farms' higher field score placed them in third place over Mr.
Payne on total score of 216.8.
Twenty-two contestants had over 50 bushels, 14 of them with 60 or over and the average for the 27 who completed was 58.44 bushels. All these growers had Cornell 595. The three winners will now compete at the Royal Winter Fair for provincial honors and valuable prizes.

Agricultural representative W.
M. Cockburn, Newmarket, who is secretary of the local Crop Improvement Association, in announcing the results mentioned that for the first time since he came to York county, Hessian Fly was found in some of the fields. A circular from the Ontario Agricultural College states that this pest which has not been troublesome for years was prevalent over the province this year.
The circular warns against seeding wheat too early, perhaps in this district about mid September. Last year harvest was off early and much of the wheat was seeded earlier than usual.

The other prize winners were:
Norman Payne, Maple, R. R. 1,
216.8; David Davidson, Belhaver,
213.8; Eugene Lemon, Stouffville,
R. R. 2, 211.6; Edwin Johnson, Aurora, R. R. 2, 211.4; Edgar Dennis, Aurora, R. R. 2, 210-6; Wynnyates Farms, Todmorden, R. R. 1, 209.2; Elson Miles, Milliken, 207.6; J. M. Thirkle, Weston,
R. R. 1, 207.4; Andrew Watson,
Newmarket, R. R. 1, 204.

KETTLEBY
The W.A. and W.M.S. of the Kettleby United church met in the hall Tuesday evening, Sept.
5, with the W.M.S. vice president,
Mrs. H. Burns, in the chair.

It was announced that Sunday,
Nov. 5, would be our special W.M.S. service, and also a bale of used clothing is to be sent in October. So bring good used clothing to the next meeting.

Mrs. Jerry Black presented the final chapter of the study book, Growing With the Years. This dealt with the full and interesting life one might have as a full time worker in the United church.

One might be a nurse in the Battle River hospital in Alberta or in the wilds of Africa; a worker in the metropolitan church in Toronto or a missionary in Japan or India. A real and satisfying life comes only to those who work for something outside of themselves.

We as Christians should all give a portion of our time to the work of the church. The act of tithing could be revived with great benefit to all. A writer once said, "He who gives no gift on the altar carries no blessing away".

Mrs. Anson McCluskie presided over the W.A. She announced the October meeting would be in the afternoon with a special speaker. Also that the bazaar is drawing closer and knitting is the next shower.

Mrs. D. G. Ray was appointed assistant treasurer as Mrs. Hea-cock's illness has for the present prevented her from carrying on.

Mrs. Ray Marshall favored us with the instrumental, The Lost Cord.

Mrs. McCluskie took for the topic an article written by a medical doctor entitled, "Why I Believe in God". This was a story of the doctor who was led to God in spite of his own sciectism through the love and faith and devotion of the folk of a

YORK COUNTY

In Review 1615 - 1949

This is another of a series of articles on the history of York County, edited by Hugh Griggs, Mimico, from information compiled during the past four years by W. G.
Goddard, staff member of Weston Collegiate Institute and Vocational School. York County celebrates its centenary this year.

In 1926, the York market on Yonge St. at the city limits was officially opened on June 19. Twenty-eight producers set up stalls on the opening day. Over a period of five months there was an average of 402 persons per month displaying produce for sale.

Since 1909, 18 of the first 20 concrete bridges built in Canada were constructed in the county of York.

In 1927, General Order No. 101 was promulgated and stated that, with the gracious approval of His Majesty King George the Fifth, the regiment would again assume its full title, granted by King George III in 1779. The Queen's Rangers, 1st American regiment, and authorization was given for continuance of the ancient badges and devices first adopted in 1779. To complete the order of dress, the old woodland green uniform with its amethyst blue facings and silver trimmings as the full dress of the regiment was authorized.

In the following year, 1928, the York Rangers became allied with the Green Howards, Alexandra, Princess of Wales Own Yorkshire Regiment, one of the most famous units in the British Army and formed in the year 1688.

This same year, the Queen's Rangers became allied with the Queen's Royal West Surrey Regiment. This is the second oldest regiment in the British army and was founded in the year 1661.

At a later date an alliance was formed with the 2-35th Australians, the city of Newcastle regiment.

A further honor came to the regiment in 1928 when an order was promulgated that by the kindness of the colonel of the Queen's Royals and the gracious approval of His Majesty, the regiment was permitted to adopt as its own the first motto of its allied regiment, the Queen's Royals, "Pristinae Virtutis Memor" granted to that regiment for its gallantry at Tongres in the year 1703.

The costs of education throughout the county had risen appreciably in the past ten years. Municipalities were beginning to realize that equal educational opportunities for students in the rural districts as compared with opportunities afforded students in the urban centres were taxing the ability of the former to provide.

As a result, council passed a resolution to consider the advisability of approaching the provincial government of Ontario with the need of the government assuming the responsibility of education throughout the province and thus avoid the numerous difficulties confronting the various municipalities.

The Metropolitan Street Railway Co. began to feel the competition from motor busses running along the same route northward on Yonge St. There was some talk of it having to cease operating. As this line was vital to the needs of thousands of people in the county, the county passed a resolution strongly urging the board of control of the city of Toronto to assure the continuance of this means of transportation and another resolution requesting the provincial government to cancel the license of the Toronto Transportation Commission from competing by means of motor busses with the service offered by the Metropolitan Street Railway Co.

The severity of the depression and the increased charges for assistance to its residents were pressing too hard upon the municipalities and in some instances were causing some communities to face bankruptcy. In an effort to relieve the financial distress being felt by some political corporations, county council passed a resolution in which it resolved that the government of Canada be requested that in any plans for the relief of the unemployed no part of the cost of such relief be passed back to the municipalities; and that the government be urged to make a thorough investigation into economic conditions in the country with a view of dissolving combines and interlocking directorates so that the present day methods of organized capital in closing down competing industries be checked.

Cut Teachers' Salaries

In this year, 1931, county council passed a resolution expressing disapproval at the alarming increase in the cost of secondary school education. The committee on education reported at the December session that costs could be decreased by cutting teachers' salaries—25 percent on salaries over $3,000, and 15 percent under $3,000; by refraining from any further building for the next few years, and by adopting a "double shift" schedule in schools which were over crowded. These recommendations were adopted.

For the past three years, the county council had decreased the costs of municipal services and administration in an effort to relieve the taxpayers during the economic depression. In addition, the members of the county council tried to have the burden of relief costs placed on the dominion and provincial governments so that the expenditures for such services would be divided equally over the whole population of the country. On numerous occasions they petitioned the legislative bodies to this effect.

In 1933 the county council petitioned the provincial department of education to abolish examination fees for high school entrance and matriculation examinations.

The year 1934 was the centennial celebration of the city of Toronto and the county council approved a grant of money to provide a suitable contribution towards the Toronto centennial celebration.

Article 22 will deal with the problems of depression years.

Pages from the Editor's Notebook

We were interviewed by a gentleman seeking information about Newmarket for publication in a police magazine recently. An issue of the magazine was to be devoted to North York. "What," he asked, "is the outstanding feature of Newmarket?"

We started to answer, paused, tried again. The realization broke upon us. There is no outstanding feature of Newmarket in the usual sense of the word. There are no Elora Rocks, no Fergus dam. There is no Waterloo music festival, no Aurora horse show.

There is nothing granted Newmarket by nature or industrial development; there is nothing which has been created by its people which is synonymous with its name.

We told our visitor this, and fearful that he would think Newmarket too uninteresting, we told him of the numerous activities undertaken in town, of the Lions and the Optimist clubs, of the Veterans and the Legion and the tremendous amount of welfare work they do.

We told him of the Citizens' Band, of the Trumpet Band, of the orchestra, the choral groups, of the great support music has always had in Newmarket. We told him of the drama club, of the minstrel show, of the many creative workers in Newmarket.

We told him of our sports program. There was a time, we said, when Newmarket's name was synonymous with top flight hockey but people are forgetting the championships now. Instead we play local hockey in local leagues but the enthusiasm is still there. We talked about baseball and softball, lacrosse and all the rest.

"We did install artificial ice in our arena at far less than half cost for other municipalities because everyone pitched in with voluntary labor donations of money and material but that is not outstanding in Newmarket," we said, "that is in the normal course of events."

We told him of the history of the town, as well as we knew it, of Pickering College, of our new public school, of the many events for children which are sponsored each year by various organizations, Tom Kirk night, Hallowe'en party, and the rest.

We told him how the people in town pitched in their contributions to help a boy crippled in a haying accident, how the town contributed close to $8,000 to Manitoba flood relief, how local service undertakings are so thoroughly supported.

We told him of the many churches, of the interest in civic activities, of the great possibilities for expansion. We told of our narrow Main St. which for all its hazards, has not seen a serious accident in years. We quoted our police chief: "Newmarket is the most law-abiding town I have ever seen."

All this we told him and much more. "Guess if there is anything outstanding about Newmarket," we ended, "it is the way we do things here. It is the friendly interest which greets the stranger and protects a neighbor who is having poor luck. It is the arguments among us which end in an united front the moment someone else butts in. It is our easygoing way which continues the use of a building condemned a quarter century ago but which brings the most progressive interest to our schools and other institutions. There's all this and so much more we could tell you about Newmarket, but there doesn't seem to be anything outstanding."

Our visitor hadn't said a word throughout this recital. Then he spoke. "I think your town must be congratulated. You haven't a recognized historical landmark or any of the other of the usual features one associates with other towns. But I think you must have something else far more valuable. I think there must be a heap of good living in Newmarket."

Miss Florence McConkey, London, has been visiting Mrs. W. J. Patterson and her cousin, Mrs. M. B. McManus. She was on her way to Pittsburgh to finish her course in art.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Williams, who have been visiting their old homes in England for some weeks, are booked to sail from Liverpool today by S.S. Regina.

A fine showing is being made by residents of York county in different competitions at the C.N.E. this year. Some of the winners were unsalted butter, 56-lb. box, Sutton Dairy, Sutton West, ninth prize; salted butter, June make, 14-lb. boxes, Sutton Dairy, first prize; dairy butter, ten-lb. crock, Effie M. Dove, Kettleby, sixth prize.

On Tuesday evening the members of the Christian church choir met at the home of Mr. H. M. Gladman for a social evening in honor of Miss Jean Carrick and Mr. Andrew Carrick who are leaving this week for the west. Miss Annie Knowles presented Miss Carrick with a gold brooch set with pearls and Mr. H. Fockler presented Mr. Carrick with an eversharp pencil.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mayor and little son, Neil, Hamilton, are visiting Mrs. Mayor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Richardson, Vaudorf.

Miss Helen Richardson has entered a teachers' course at the Normal school in Toronto.

There were six rink entered in the weekly tournament at the bowling greens on Friday. First prize winners, Billy Bosworth, skip, W. Rushbrook, F. A. M. Lister and Herb McCharles received eversharp pencils. Second prize winners, Tim Eaton, Monte Brinson, Fred Chantler and Tom Doyle, received ashtrays.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1900

At the Friends' Endeavor on Tuesday evening, Miss Palmer was elected delegate to the convention to be held in Guelph the first week in October.

Mr. N. Gallinger, East Gwillimbury, brought corn to Newmarket last Saturday that measured 14' 8 1/2". Mr. Wm. Ward, Zephyr, has corn 13' 1" high.

There was a good crowd at the market on Saturday but little produce offered. Butter and eggs still had an upward tendency. Butter sold from 20 to 22 cents and eggs from 12 to 13 cents. Ripe tomatoes were plentiful and sold from ten to 20 cents a basket. Peaches were from 35 to 40 cents a basket, crabapples ten cents and cooking apples eight cents a basket. Potatoes were down to 40 cents a bag.

The bridge on Prospect Ave. has been newly floored and the corporation staff is putting the asphalt coating on the new walk.

Three thousand one hundred lbs. of cheese were made at the factory in Newmarket last week.

Dr. W. E. Lundy has sold out his dental business to Dr. C. H. Clark, Barrie, and intends to leave Newmarket.

A meeting of the subscribers to the Haines memorial fund was held in the council chambers on Wednesday evening. Over $60 has been promised and no canvassing has been done as yet. Mayor Cane was elected chairman, L. G. Jackson secretary and C. G. Ross, treasurer. It was decided to hold a patriotic concert and the memorial should take the form a substantial monument.

The attendance at the high school is 75. There are ten in the fourth form.

The Editorials:

Compulsory retirement

(The Financial Post)

Compulsory retirement of civic employees at 65 or even 70 is expensive and cruel and should be discontinued, William Mercer, Montreal and Vancouver businessman, told the recent convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities.

There will be widespread agreement with that opinion and still more so as recent pension plans come into more general operation. And it applies to a much wider field than civic employees. It covers the whole range of industry, business and the professions, except in those relatively few jobs where physical strength is still a prime requisite.

A little rose-covered cottage in the country is a fine thing for a man who likes it. But there are a great many people who don't. They would much rather go on working, perhaps not full time, but at least for some part of the day. And they will be healthier and happier if they do. Some older people, too, through no fault of their own have to meet certain obligations which require more revenue than comes from the average pension cheque.

These are good arguments against compulsory retirement, but, from the national standpoint, there is one much more important. This is the loss to the country in experience and brains when everyone is forced out to pasture at what is still far short of old age.

The world is full of examples of people beyond 65 who have been or are making a vital contribution. In more cases than is realized it takes a great many years to acquire the necessary experience to handle certain jobs well. Compulsory retirement would seriously reduce such usefulness.

Eighty-year-old Bernard Barauch had some wise things to say about this problem the other day. We must, he said, discard our depression-born philosophy of forcing older workers out of jobs just because they reach a certain age. To do so would create "a vast human waste material — with some tragic portent." Broadly speaking, warns Mr. Barauch, it is unwise to judge a man by his years. "We must remember never to become too statistical where human beings are concerned. The problem of what to do about the aged is primarily one of recognizing them as individual human beings, full of fears, hopes, despairs and appetites. Our problem now is to make industry understand them and absorb them for we are definitely entering upon an era of a new kind of old age."

A major 'export'

One of the casualties of the rail strike was the annual convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association of which this newspaper is a member.

The convention, now at least temporarily postponed, would have made few headlines, even in the press of the host province.

But that does not mean it would not have been important.

The very fact that the representatives of over 500 newspapers, representing communities large and small from British Columbia to Newfoundland, take time out for a get-together is in itself big news.

Annual conventions of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association are a form of dominion-provincial conference minus the constitutional problems. They are meetings of minds at which common and uncommon problems are explored by men and women whose job it is to work with opinion.

Weekly newspaper editors are important people, even if they do say so themselves. They are important not because of who they are but because across their desks flow the cross-currents of community life at a level at which it can be interpreted relatively accurately.

From the editorial and news columns of the weekly newspapers of Canada can be gained a sure insight into the inner workings of the nation.

The town and village press is a true reflector and a true light, interpreting and guiding. It is a Gallup poll whose accuracy has never been questioned.

Publishing a weekly newspaper is, indeed, a much bigger and more important business than most of its editors believe.

Important business

(The Financial Post)

In our foreign tourist business we have been lucky this year. Despite Korea and unfavorable weather in many sections of the country, more American cars came over the border last month and the month previous than ever before. If we can keep this up, we are going to develop a new major U.S. "export" and one that will add greatly to our economic stability.

But we won't be able to go very far unless we give these U.S. tourists good service. They must find clean, comfortable surroundings, good food well served, and good roads. Above all there must be no "chiselling."

Nothing will turn a visitor against a community or a county so quickly and so decisively as the feeling that he has been cheated. Especially is this true of Americans who like to think that they are the world's shrewdest traders. Unfortunately there has been some cheating this year and of a very flagrant sort. Ontario's deputy travel minister McCall reports a number of complaints from American visitors about attempts to withhold from them the exchange due on their money.

Mr. McCall does well to warn that: "Chiselling 50 cents on a $5 transaction can cost us thousands of dollars in goodwill and future business. A few people who do that can destroy our national reputation for fair dealing and honest value."

Family-sized farm

(Family Herald and Weekly Star)

Are we going machinery mad? Does the increasing investment in farm machinery mean that the day of the family-sized unit is passing? Or are we going to have family-sized units—but larger? Is it the good, old hundred acres that is being bowed out by modern invention? Or is it possible that farmers in good times are investing more in machinery and equipment than will be justified should times return to normal? The answer to these questions has social as well as economic implications.

On the social side, there are strong arguments for a continuance of a great number of family owned and operated business units. Family enterprise gives a stability to the social fabric that does not seem to be possible in a society composed largely of hired men. In this latter category we include all who work for wages or salaries, even when entrusted with a voice in management. The actual ownership and direction of a business gives a man a stake in the community that does not go with a sheaf of stocks and bonds in a strongbox in the bank. The employee tends to look to governments for his security. . . . The owner of his own business hopes to build his own security and thinks in the term of private initiative.

Up to the present we have been thinking of machinery investments, labor costs and size of farms only in terms of financial returns in the immediate future. Urban industry has been following very much the same course, only more so. Have we become too materialistic in our thinking?

In this mad rush for ever increasing returns and what we are pleased to call a "higher" standard of living, are we in danger of losing some of the more intangible things? These intangibles, we firmly believe, are more important than the material possessions in the creation of national character. "What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Nature's conservation

When pioneers started to clear land, they usually sought right away to drain any swamp they found in their property, clear away the shrubbery that covered it, and turn the reclaimed land into a field.

They argued that, from a farming standpoint, the swamp in its natural state was waste land. They said, too, that often the swamp had formed part of an ancient riverbed and its black earth was capable of producing good crops.

The farmers of today are coming to deal differently with the swamp land that remains. They preserve it as an asset to their property.

The new attitude toward the swamp stems from recent interest in conservation, which includes protection of wild life, checking of soil erosion and the prevention of damaging spring floods.

Ask an up-to-date farmer how he regards his swamp and he'll tell you it affords cover for many kinds of animals and birds. Wild life nests in its shrubbery and grassland and the young birds and animals later find their way to other parts of the countryside. When a stream flows through the swamp, there is often good fishing.

A stream that runs through a swamp has its own flood control system. Its waters, checked by the tangled growth along its banks, are unlikely to sweep down in a spring freshet to carry away valuable topsoil.

The soil of most swamps is rich, black and silty. But it doesn't tempt the farmer any more. He knows that the old swamp can serve him best if kept the way it was left by nature.

Office Cat reports Catnips By Ginger

Slim Bliggins chose a bad time to visit parliament last week. Slim, our natural born home hewn primitive artist who lives in his shack by the railway tracks, said the other morning, as he lit his after breakfast El Pando cigar, "Ever since I gave up professional bumming to be a professional painter, I have never had such an experience as this."

Slim has been commissioned to paint a picture called "Our National Heritage" for one of the brewing companies. To try and obtain some insight into "our national heritage," he visited Ottawa last week, and went to parliament.

Slim already feels his position. "Being charged with the mighty task of putting our national heritage on canvass is not so easy," said Slim. "There was nothin' to bein' a bum but this here new mantle falls heavy on me shoulders."

"So I goes to parliament for inspiration. I figured I'd get some hints from there. So I've figured out that 75 percent of the politicians part their hair on the left, five percent on the right and the rest don't have any to speak of."

Slim claimed the speeches were pretty dry. It was during these that he computed such idle statistics as above and it was during the dull parliamentary harangues that it happened.

"It all happened when George Drew spied a stranger in the House," said Slim. "Naturally I figured he must have meant me. But just as I was silently creeping away under a row of tables, the house ups and votes 156 to 64 that the stranger could stay. What a relief!"

The story behind all this, of course, was that the leader of the opposition was reverting to an ancient parliamentary rule in an attempt to get a secret session on the defense debate. There wasn't actually any stranger in the House at all if you didn't count visitors. But it appears that in the days of King Charles I galleries were cleared, of strangers when parliamentarians complained representatives of the King were interfering with their work.

Some historians state, your favorite cat correspondent has learned, that the King's representatives sat in the galleries and motioned with a finger across throat to whoever had the floor. The threat of beheading was an effective way of discouraging opposition.

"And what other impressions did you get from your visit to parliament?" I asked of Bliggins.

"Oh no impressions," he said, butting his El Pando, "I then altered my course. I started working on a new approach to our national heritage. I decided that the spirit of our national heritage comes from the grass roots."

"So I decides to go to the grass roots. I went to see Col. Mulholland Rivers, chairman of the Cuttin' Corners' Ratepayers and Local Historical Lore Association."

"And did you find the grass roots of our national heritage?" I asked.

Apparently that was the sore point I had touched upon. Slim Bliggins has now resigned his commission to paint "Our National Heritage" for the brewing company. He made an intensive study of the life and times of the grass roots community.

"It all happened at the council meeting when deputy-reeve Cam Ferried spied a stranger in the house. Naturally I figured he must have meant me. . . ."

The Top Six Inches by "Back Concession"

Golden Glow was asking about the proper time to slip plants and the sign of the zodiac. The lady holding the flowers is Virgo representing the bowels in the picture of the man of the zodiac. Virgo is an earth sign and also a barren sign. But we have never tried slipping plants by the signs.

In planting seeds by the signs of the zodiac there are fruitful, semi-fruitful towards barrenness, and barren signs which goes with the increase and the decrease of the moon. We would ask Golden Glow to try slipping her geraniums in both fruitful and barren signs, both in the decrease and increase of the moon.

During the decrease of the moon, September 6 and 7 is cancer fruitful, October 3 and 4, cancer fruitful, September 8, Leo barren, September 9, Virgo barren, September 26 and 27, Aries barren. During the increase of the moon, September 14 and 15 is Scorpio fruitful, September 23 and 24, Pisces fruitful, September 19 and 20, Capricorn semi-fruitful, September 11 Virgo barren, October 1 and 2, Gemini barren.

We have found it a most interesting study, planting by the signs of the zodiac. There are many things that must be taken into consideration such as the sun, air, fertility of the soil, cultivation and moisture. This year we planted our corn and melons under the sign cancer during the increase of the moon but for lack of warm air and sunshine, the crop is not good. Planting under the right sign does not guarantee a crop.

Last year, because of the lack of moisture our crops were short yet they were all planted in the right sign. Many farmers note that one or two days' planting will make a difference in the yield. We have proven for our own satisfaction that to operate on male farm animals when the sign is in the feet Pisces there is less bleeding and swelling.

The study of astrology in this connection broadens out our thinking. We see an over-all plan for the benefit of mankind, thought out by a master mind. Wood, coal electricity, oil, gas and now nuclear energy, the mystery of reproduction and growth, the seasons coming in order, the action of frost on our soil, our trees going dormant to bud forth in the spring time, a small seed containing life to produce food that man may live. It is a great and wonderful harmonious plan for the maintenance of mankind.

Yet when man enters the picture there is discord, discontentment and strife. When man tries to distribute the produce of a great and wonderful creation we make a mess. The greatest fact of all is that human life is the most valuable of all our assets. We choose the cleverest ones from our society to transact our business. Some of the best brains represent both labor and management. We select the best and most capable to represent us at our peace conferences. We even let the economy of our whole country be put out of balance by a few men who could not agree. Men suffer and die because a few men want to unbalance their country into a better position.

But nature works in harmony. Yet we have so much discord in the world today. We have fought two wars and have not settled many of the problems. When we live closer to nature and its pattern our actions are affected by the lessons we learn. We can depict peace and contentment. Cheerio.

There's autumn in the air

Vegetables make an ideal base for the main dish of fall suppers. Squash, tomatoes, eggplant, cauliflower and peppers lend themselves particularly well to this type of dish and combine well with other foods. Often the addition of a little meat will give flavor and make a satisfactory dinner.

The casserole is the favored utensil of the thrifty cook. She is able to combine a little leftover food with fresh vegetables and perhaps a cereal and serve a steaming, mouth-watering meal in short order. Similar combinations may be cooked in the frying pan or double boiler. The golden brown topping is missing but if these topstove dishes are served on, or with crisp toast the effect is excellent.

EGGPLANT CREOLE NO. 1

1 medium egg plant
 3 tbsp. shortening
 1 small green pepper, chopped
 1 small onion, chopped
 3 tbsp. flour
 1/2 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. brown sugar
 3 large tomatoes, peeled and chopped

OR 2 cups chopped canned tomatoes

3/4 cup bread crumbs
 3 tbsp. grated cheese
 Pare, slice and dice eggplant in 1" pieces. Cook for ten minutes in a small amount of boiling, salted water. Drain. Place eggplant in greased baking dish. Melt shortening, add green pepper and onion and fry for two minutes. Add flour, salt and sugar, blending well. Add tomatoes and continue cooking for five minutes. Pour the tomato sauce over the eggplant and top with bread crumbs which have been combined with the grated cheese. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 20 minutes. Yield: six servings.

EGGPLANT CREOLE NO. 2

3 tbsp. fat
 1/2 small green pepper, cut in strips
 2 tbsp. chopped onion
 1 medium eggplant, peeled and diced
 5 large tomatoes
 Salt and pepper
 Melt fat in frying pan. Add chopped green pepper and onion and cook for two to three minutes. Add eggplant. Cover and steam for about five minutes. Peel and chop tomatoes, add to eggplant and cook, uncovered, until eggplant is tender, about 15 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Yield: six servings.

SEPTEMBER CASSEROLE

5 large tomatoes OR 2 cups canned tomatoes
 1 tsp. flour
 1-8 tsp. sugar
 1-3 cup chopped onion
 1-8 tsp. marjoram
 1 tsp. chopped parsley
 1 1/2 cups cooked corn or canned whole kernel corn
 1 tsp. salt
 Pepper

1 tsp. grated cheese
 2 cups hot, mashed potatoes
 Peel and slice tomatoes. Place in a casserole and sprinkle with flour, sugar, onion, marjoram and parsley. Over this, place the corn and season with salt and pepper. Combine two tbsp. of the grated cheese with the hot mashed potatoes and place in a ring on top of corn layer. Sprinkle the remaining two tbsp. of cheese over the potatoes. Place casserole in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, and bake until a golden brown, about 20 minutes. Yield: six servings.

STUFFED SQUASH

3 acorn squash
 1 cup water
 Salt and pepper
 1-3 cup chopped onion
 1 1/2 cups chopped cooked meat
 2 cups thick white sauce
 1/2 cup bread crumbs
 2 tsp. butter
 Cut the squash in half, crosswise. Scoop out the seeds. Cook in a covered kettle with one cup of water until tender, about 15 to 20 minutes. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Add onion and meat to white sauce and fill squash halves with mixture. Cover with crumbs, dot with butter and bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, until brown bubbling. Yield: six servings.

COUPLE WED AT CHRIST CHURCH

Pink and white gladioli, cosmos, dahlias and asters formed the setting in Christ church, Kettleby, September 2, for the marriage of Laura Anne, daughter of Mrs. Gritten, Pottageville, and the late Mr. Harold H. Gritten, and Mr. Harold Frederick Funnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Funnell, Pottageville. Rev. F. V. Abbott performed the ceremony. Mrs. Jerry Black was organist and Miss Mary Wassink, soloist, sang The Lord's Prayer and Because.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Philip Ineson, the bride chose a gown of white nylon sheer and lace over taffeta. Her finger-tip veil of tulle illusion was gathered to a band of lace with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and bouvardia and wore the gift of the groom, a string of pearls. The matron of honor, Mrs. Allan Hilliard, sister of the bride, was gowned in turquoise nylon sheer over taffeta and carried a mixed colonial bouquet. Mr. Raymond Funnell was best man for his brother. Messrs. David Gritten and Bill Kerr were ushers.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's mother in Pottageville where she received the guests in a green printed sheer gown with corsage of tea roses, assisted by the groom's mother in navy blue crepe and corsage of red roses. For travelling to the Muskoka district the bride wore a light blue gabardine suit, navy accessories and corsage of pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Funnell will reside in Pottageville. Guests were present from Wayne, Detroit and Toronto.

MARGARET ANDREWS MARRIES HEARST MAN

Rev. George Purchase, Aurora, performed the ceremony in the home of the bride's parents on September 7 when Margaret Lillian Andrews, Reg. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Andrews, Aurora, became the bride of Mr. Gordon Clifford Hearst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Achilles, Hearst.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a delphinium blue suit with navy accessories and a corsage of American beauty roses. Her bridesmaid, Louise Boys, Reg. N., wore a wine suit with grey accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mr. Frederick Turner, Hearst, was groomsmen.

At the Ridge Inn, Oak Ridges, the bride's mother in navy sheer with corsage of pink roses was assisted in receiving the guests by the groom's mother in navy with grey accessories and corsage of pink carnations. After a honeymoon in the United States and Ottawa, the newlyweds will live in Hearst.

AUDREY LEAPARD WEDS DUNCAN BEATTIE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Leopard, Newmarket, was the scene of the wedding on September 2 of their daughter, Audrey Eileen, to Mr. Frank Duncan Beattie, son of Mr. Jock G. Beattie and the late Mrs. Beattie. Rev. M. E. H. Boudreau officiated.

Wearing a white slipper satin gown with Chantilly lace yoke with matching mittens and a finger-tip veil, the bride carried a cascade of red roses and stephanotis.

JEAN CLARKE WEDS

CARL MICKS AT HOME

Under an arch of evergreens banked with gladioli at the home of her parents on September 9, Jean Vera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Clarke, Zephyr, and Mr. Carl Micks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Micks, Sharon, were united in marriage. Rev. H. Hallman performed the ceremony. Miss Doreen Hopkins was organist and Miss Olive Meyers, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed with lace and a matching tulle finger-tip veil. She carried a horseshoe bouquet of red and white roses. Mrs. John Millar, matron of honor, in mauve taffeta and matching headpiece, carried a nosegay of yellow carnations. Miss Myrtle Clarke, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, chose yellow taffeta, matching headpiece, and carried a nosegay of mauve carnations. Mr. Garnet Micks was best man. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where her mother received in a navy faille dress with navy accessories, assisted by the groom's mother in a navy faille dress with navy accessories. For travelling to northern districts the bride chose a wine gabardine suit with black velvet accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Micks will reside in Newmarket.

YVONNE J. BILLING WEDS KING MAN

Baskets of gladioli formed the setting in the Aurora Baptist church on August 26 for the marriage of Yvonne Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Billing, Aurora, and Mr. William Ross Bovair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bovair, King. Rev. A. R. Park officiated at the double ceremony. Mrs. Donald Egan was organist and Mrs. W. Knapp, soloist, sang Because and I Love You Truly.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with fingertip veil. Miss Joyce Mings, maid of honor, cousin of the bride, wore blue taffeta and carried a nosegay. Misses Josephine Maaten and Dorothea Martin, bridesmaids, in yellow taffeta, carried nosegays. The best man was Mr. Norman Wade and the ushers were Messrs. Floyd Billing, brother of the bride, and Murray Hunter, cousin of the groom.

AUDREY PEAT WED AT ST. PAUL'S

St. Paul's Anglican church, Newmarket, was the scene of the marriage September 2 of Audrey Irene, daughter of Mrs. Peat, Newmarket, and the late Mr. E. Peat, and Mr. Howard James Zimmerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Zimmerman, Elgin Mills. Rev. J. T. Rhodes performed the ceremony. Mrs. J. O. Little was organist and Miss Velma Thompson sang Because.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. J. E. Peat, the bride was gowned in ivory satin with lace yoke, the bustle back falling into a slight train. A satin halo covered with seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book and a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Mary Gilroy, sister of the bride, matron of honor, chose orchid motif taffeta with matching headpiece and shoulder veil and carried orchid and yellow gladioli petals. Miss Audrey Brice, bridesmaid, wore turquoise taffeta with matching headpiece and shoulder veil and carried shaded gladioli petals. The bride's niece, Karen Peat, was flower girl in yellow taffeta and lace with matching bonnet and carried a basket of mixed flowers. Mr. Harold Smith, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and ushers were Messrs. Early Thompson and Douglas Ropp.

For the reception held at the Graystones, Aurora, Mrs. Peat received in a two-piece mauve dress with black accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and gladioli petals, assisted by Mrs. Zimmerman in navy sheer with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. For motoring through the United States, the bride donned a mulberry gabardine suit with navy accessories. They will reside in Toronto. Guests were present from Brockville, Toronto, Aurora, Bradford and Richmond Hill.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Dorothy Coleman, wore a pink satin gown over which was a skirt of tulle illusion with matching mittens and carried a colonial nosegay. Mr. Dan Beattie, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride's mother received in navy crepe with a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Dan Beattie, sister-in-law of the groom, assisted in a blue faille dress with a corsage of red roses. For travelling the bride chose a navy dress with navy and white accessories. The young couple will reside in Newmarket.

Out-of-town guests included David Mottram, Mrs. Ettie Green and Hilda Davies, Aurora, Miss Miriam Shuttleworth, Collingwood, Mrs. Mary Roebuck, England, Mrs. A. Morrison, Miss Grace Morrison and Mr. Fred Glas, Kitchener, Mrs. H. Horrell, Lapaning, and Mrs. Muriel Mossman, Toronto.

GWYNNETH KITELEY

A. E. WILKINS WED

Pink and white gladioli formed the setting in St. James' Anglican church, Sharon, when Rev. M. C. D. Hutt solemnized the marriage of Gwynneth Madeline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kiteley, Sharon, and Mr. Arthur Edward Wilkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkins, Toronto. Rev. Robert Pugh played the wedding music and Master Bobbie Vernon sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white marquisette over white taffeta with fitted chantilly lace jacket with peplum. Her tulle fingertip veil flowed from a Dutch cap of chantilly lace and she carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and swansonia.

Mrs. Harold Mowder as matron of honor wore toast net over peach taffeta with matching hat and carried talisman roses and gladioli petals. Mrs. Donald Kiteley and Mrs. Jack Chambers as bridesmaids wore toast net over beige taffeta with matching headpiece and carried Johanna Hill roses and gladioli petals. Mr. Charles Snelson was best man. Messrs. Donald Kiteley and Robert Wilkins were ushers.

In her home, Mrs. Kiteley received wearing a hunter's green faille dress with green hat of velvet and feathers and corsage of pink roses and gladioli petals. Mrs. Wilkins assisted wearing a black redingote over figured dress with a corsage of white carnations and bouvardia. To travel through the New England States the bride chose a brown suit with brown and tangerine accessories. The couple will live in Toronto.

The reception was held in the church parlors and was the first held in the new hall. Mrs. Billing received in dusky rose faille with navy accessories and corsage of cream rosebuds and blue cornflowers, assisted by Mrs. Bovair in grey faille with black accessories and corsage of red rosebuds.

For travelling to the Kawartha and Huntsville districts, the bride chose a black and white checked suit with pink accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Bovair will reside in King. Guests were present from Picton, Acton, Strathroy and Newmarket.

DON'T WORK A 24 HOUR DAY

On a farm it doesn't always follow that the harder you work, the more you make. For example, you work just as hard to cultivate, seed and reap a poor field as a good one. And often purchase of a machine can save you hours of work and increase your profits at the same time.

Smart farmers don't kill themselves with work. They figure out ways and means of improving their farm to cut work and increase profit.

The catch is, these improvements usually cost money—money which you haven't got right now. It might take you years to save it up, yet you could earn more if you made the improvement.

One of the reasons for this bank's existence is to assist you with loans for farm improvements. You can pay back the money out of your increased earning power much more quickly than you could save it up in the first place. It's a good deal for you and for us. Why not use our services?

"I enjoyed my shopping today!"

Yes, I really enjoyed my shopping trip—I bought all the things I saved for!

That's the way I plan my bigger purchases. They seem to come easier, and more quickly, when I put something into the bank regularly. I like the comforting feeling of watching my account grow.

I hate keeping too much cash around the house. It's so convenient to have the bank take care of it. And my bank book tells me where I stand.

I guess most women are much like me—housewives with modest savings who find their neighborhood bank handy, useful... always obliging.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS

Yesterday we heard the conclusion of two sets of sermons—one by Rev. F. Breckon, Newmarket, and the other by Rev. John Linton at Stouffville.

The two sermons were as widely different in content and delivery as the poles and yet both were built on the "firm foundation," the basic truth that no individual and no nation can survive unless they believe in God and in His manifestation of Himself in Jesus Christ. Mr. Breckon took Nebuchadnezzar, who in his wisdom in the book of Daniel, is likened to a great tree, as an example of what pride and self sufficiency can do to a character.

His reign started out with everything in his favor. His land stretched about him rich and beautiful and he was a beneficent ruler, like the great tree which gave shelter and food to all within its radius. But the vision as interpreted by Daniel said that God commanded the tree to be stripped of its leaves, shorn of its branches and cut down till nothing remained but the stump.

Nebuchadnezzar was to be cut down thusly, because as his possessions increased pride grew in his heart. "Behold my kingdom which I have built, my goods and my chattels. He had forgotten, in his pride, that he was only the steward of God's bounty, to have and to hold only so long as he acknowledged this. So, in the midst of his grandiose power complex, Nebuchadnezzar is stripped of his kingdom, his power and his intellect, and for seven years, or until he acknowledges God as the supreme Lord of all, is as a beast of the field.

We have watched, went on Mr. Breckon, the disintegration of the British Empire from much the same causes. We as an empire, had forgotten that there is a higher and a nobler thing than to be British—although we are all loyal subjects of the king and proud of it—and that is to be a follower of Christ. Our tree of empire had to be cut down because we were saying in our pride, "We built this wonderful, far flung state; what can touch us", and forgot. I thought as I listened, Rudyard Kipling's prophetic admonition that "though the tumult and the shouting dies, the captains and the kings depart, still stands the thine ancient sacrifice, an humble and a contrite heart. Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget."

As with the nations, so with each of us as individuals. If we leave God out of our lives and bear no fruit of the spirit our lives too, will be lopped off as the unfruitful tree died when Christ found no fruit on it.

On Sunday evening, as on the two preceding Sunday evenings, we journeyed to Stouffville to hear Rev. John Linton's last address.

To the hushed thousands who listened he spoke of "the unpardonable sin". I suppose to many thinking people this has always had a nightmarish quality—mysterious, terrifying and yet intriguing.

Mr. Linton said that too often a text was lifted from its place in scripture and expounded irrespective of context. This, he said made only for confusion. Christ spoke of it to the Pharisees who would not and finally could not believe that He was the Messiah.

He said there was a point in every life where we crossed the line of decision—where we said no for the last time to the voice of the Holy Spirit calling us to acknowledge Jesus Christ as our saviour. There was a point where we deliberately turned our backs on all things spiritual where, though we might go on living, we were spiritually dead.

As long as we felt the stirrings of spiritual life within us, as long as we sought after God, we had not committed the unpardonable sin. If we will not come to God after repeated invitations and after all our knowledge of His love and bounty, there comes a time when we cannot even if we would!

I have tried in these three articles to put those who did not hear him, some ideas of the man who drew such crowds to the Stouffville arena night after night for two weeks. The smallest congregation, 600; the greatest between 2,000 and 3,000. Mr. Linton had personal magnetism plus, but he also had such a love for his fellow men that he could not be satisfied till he carried them to the foot of the great white throne.

Harts bury Diggers, Advance to finals

It took Harts to create the major upset of the Aurora town league softball. They up and walloped the town "Ditch Diggers" 19-1 last Friday and thereby sent the towners back to their trenching. Harts continue on to try their luck against the winners of the Collis-Merchants clash for the league crown.

Aside from that bit of hot weather we enjoyed Friday there wasn't anything any hotter than Ed Aylett's pitching in the Hart cause. Ed up and chilled the Ditch Diggers on one solitary hit up to sixth at which point via a hit and fast stepping on the runways, Bill Mundell galloped home with the one and only run the Towners could rustle up.

Harts started their scoring parade against Mickey Sutton in the second, counting four runs and climaxed it with a big seven run fifth. Neither Mickey Sutton nor his reliever Bill Mundell found they could stop the Hartsmen. Alex Campbell and Dick Hadath were the one-two punchers with the winners with perfect batting marks. Bill McGhee and Doug Richardson supplied the home run music with base circling wallops.

Harts: G. Hayes, E. McGhee, P. McGuire, D. Richardson, D. Hadath, A. Campbell, A. Wood, C. Evans, E. Aylett; "Ditch Diggers": W. Mundell, J. Jemmett, M. Sutton, P. Knowles, H. Stephenson, D. Ferguson, B. Turan, G. Rose.

Ramblers make finals Eliminate Dukes

Inflation trends in hitting and run scoring reached a new summit in the Hoffman League Thursday. A 15 run explosion in the third enabled the Ramblers to post a 20-18 win over the Dukes. The victory earned the Ramblers the right to challenge the Spitfires for the league championship.

Naturally with the Ramblers beating the stuffings out of Bob Benville in third for 15 runs you would expect they'd have little trouble recording the victory but such was not the case as the Dukes came on strong in latter stages to pull up within two of a tie with a nine run explosion in the seventh.

Ramblers were cutting the apple soundly with special emphasis being laid on the slugging by Les Woolven, Jack Hamilton, Don Brown and Doug Campbell. Dukes main hit fire-works was supplied by Al Bryson, Harold Andrews and Bill Van Zant. Hank VanZant and Bob LeShien contributed home runs in the losing cause.

Pee Wees win twice In first O.B.A. round

Newmarket pee wees checked in with their second straight win in the first round O.B.A. round-robin series Saturday afternoon at the Stuart Scott pasture, defeating Bowmanville 13-9.

Don Thoms was our prize package stepping onto the hill to all but silence the visiting swingers with three hits over the six frames he toiled. On the other side of the fence Johnnie Mason on the Bowmanville mound preyed no puzzle. Our gang had about every kind of hit in the book from short bloopers to solid soaks and jumped into a 10-1 lead over the first rounds and were never threatened.

Jack Cain took over the pitching duties for Frank Hollingsworth in the seventh and Bowmanville batted around for five runs before the fire was finally doused.

Don Thoms eased his own pitching burden by clipping out three hits that drove in six runs. Jerry Doyle, after slamming out numerous foul balls, finally got his range finder in the right direction to slap out a couple of

Janie's bedtime problem solved

Janie, age four years needed a new technique to relax into sleep at bedtime.

Janie had been a real problem at bedtime for many months prior to the arrival of a new sitter. On the occasion when the new sitter arrived, Janie's parents were rushing away to keep an evening engagement.

There wasn't time to explain that Janie was difficult to put to bed at 8 o'clock so the unsuspecting sitter wasn't looking for any trouble along that line. Just past seven, she helped Janie into her pyjamas and began reading her a little story. By 7.30 Janie was very tired and it was a simple matter to slip her into bed with a quiet prayer.

Janie's parents felt guilty because they hadn't warned the new sitter regarding Janie's habit of stalling just at bedtime. However, this omission proved to be a solution to the entire problem. Although the 8 p.m. bedtime was the schedule, Janie really had passed her peak for sleepiness about half an hour earlier. Noisy play or fighting sleep for half an hour after her peak simply excited her and made it actually impossible for her to relax at the appointed hour.

These days Janie's parents are preparing her for bed early—then taking their cue from the inexperienced sitter, they read quietly to her until she is completely ready for bed. In the past three weeks she has been content to go to bed in this fashion before 7.30.

SPECIALTY TO MEET ATOMICS FOR CROWN

Crashing through for an early lead with an eight run explosion in the second Office Specialty stayed in front of Can. Hoffman over the rest of the route to claim a 14-10 victory in Town League semis played Tuesday at Hoffman diamond. It was loss No. 2 for Hoffmans and dropped them from the off rain stalled semis. Specialty now tangles with the Town for the league crown.

Vic Langford went the route for Hoffmans though plagued to some extent by wildness. Pete Neufeld shot Barney Bishop at the Pressmen for three rounds with fire-balling Johnny Sheddwick taking up the hurling cudgels in the fourth. The Pressmen greeted the latter with a four run barrage in the fourth but after that couldn't do a thing with his fast ball. Sheddwick retired the side on strike-outs in the seventh.

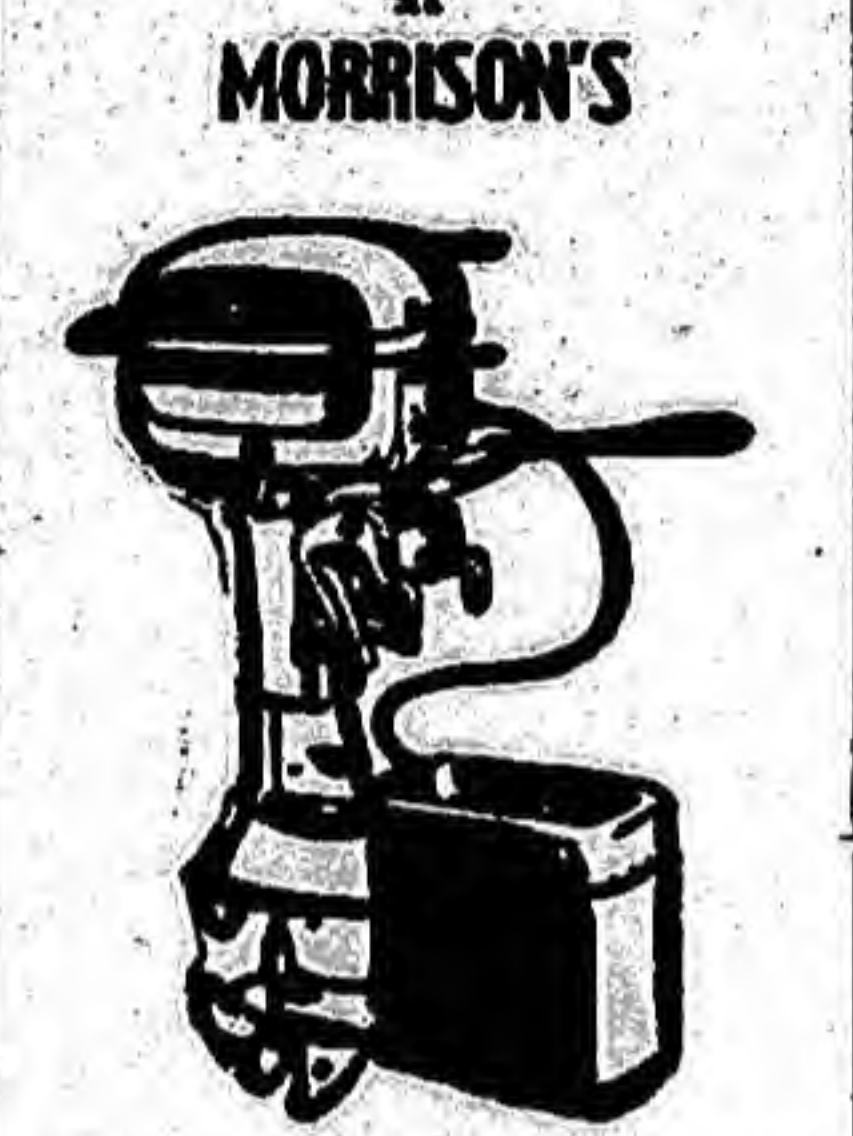

John Hisey, Bruce Andrews and Charlie VanZant were the main hit producers for the Specialty with three per main. long John Hisey including a solid four baser in his accumulation.

Al Bryson, Bob LeShien, Grant Blight and Bob Murray took the honors for Hoffmans on the offensive side.

Hoffmans: H. VanZant, A. Bryson, B. LeShien, G. Blight, W. Everest, C. Murray, J. Duncan, B. Benville, C. Codlin, V. Langford.

Specialty: J. Glenn, L. Waller, D. Barber, B. Andrews, H. Boag, J. Hisey, C. VanZant, D. Burch, W. Smith, L. Blunt, B. Bishop, J. Sheddwick.

Atomics upset Specialty In first of finals

Harry "Pop" Holmes, coach and chief roster of town "Atomics", sounded the keynote to the Town League finals "We won't be any pushovers. We're up on our pins", and so they were as they flattened the Office Specialty 6-2 in game one of the finals.

It was the first loss for the Specialty this year. It's a best two out of three set and appears destined to go the limit. Before you could stoop down and tie your shoe lace Towners up and clipped the Specialty's fire balling ace, John Sheddwick, for four runs with Alvie McKnight's two baster being the chief run producer.

Hack Cain went for one of his specialties, a four-baser that landed out beyond in the road in right centre in the third to hoist the Towners into a 5-0 advantage. Ivan Gibson's single into right scored Dave Couch with run six in the sixth. Pete Neufeld's men of the wood and steel finally pried "Lefty" Gibson away from his shut-out as Bruce Andrews and Harry Boag tied back to back singles together to open the bottom of the sixth; "Peaches" VanZant finally found his latent batting stick loaded and clipped a single to score one. Don Burch's long hoist into centre that Don Brice hip-pocketed allowed Harry Boag to gallop home with the Specialty's second run.

Ivan "Lefty" Gibson checked a neat six hitter with Harry Boag getting acquainted with left handed shoots to lead the Specialty swingers on two. Ivan Gibson and Jack Baisdon were the ball spankers in chief for the Atomics on three each.

Junior gals meet Senior sisters tonight

Hold the phone! Here's something the mushball mob can't afford to miss. Our junior gals threw out a challenge recently at their big sisters of the senior squad. The latter snapped it up and the battle is on tonight at the S.S. pastures and the starting time 6:15.

Both sides are issuing hourly bulletins on what they intend to do to the other and with reputations at stake you can bet powder puffs, combs and other feminine equipment will be left at home in this battle of the season. Looks like a natural. Better be there early.

DOWN THE CENTRE BY AN HULSE

Aurora junior hockey - definite

There's big news tonight. There is indeed big news in the sports front. I saw a paid receipt from the O.H.A. dated yesterday for the Aurora junior hockey club for 1950-51, which shows definitely, Aurora, long the hotbed of teen-age puck chasing in old North York, will ice a team that will make you sit up and take notice. I've been pledged secrecy pro tem but I can tell you that franchiseholder Earl Attridge has assigned his rights. A new group (not so new by way of past experience) has taken over and within a few days the complete plans will be available.

Rating is not yet decided; talent is "plenty available" and the finances are pretty well settled too. A coach of known ability from the ex-pro ranks will be on hand; the outside affiliations have been made and you can be assured of an effort as big and perhaps better than in other years. It was pretty hard to swallow for a lot of folk when it appeared Aurora would be out of junior hockey and quietly one or two fellows have been brewing the pot that finally boiled over on Wednesday.

I hate to hold out on you, but I've never broken a confidence yet, and I've been authorized to say exactly what I've told you. Those of the '50 Hawks who are still in these parts will be given

Bantams at round two Dispose of Hill 13-1

Round two, here we come. Newmarket Optimist bantams hurled their obstacle along the O.B.A. trail by ousting Richmond Hill Monday evening at the fair grounds. Geo. Kiroff came up with another masterful two-hit game, they seem to roll off his strong right arm when the occasion demands, allowing our Optimists to gallop to a 13-1 win.

It was win three in the best of five series. Richmond Hill forced the series to a fourth game with its home win last Friday.

Optimists used two big frames, the second when they poured across five runs and the sixth when they accumulated seven tallies to pry open the door to round two.

Highly probable if an error hadn't cropped up in the fourth, Hillers would still be searching for this first run. That error followed a hit by Lloyd Grainer for the lone Hill date with the scorer. Watson Cottrell rigged up the other Hill bingle, a single in the first that was promptly erased by a nice peg by Laurie VanZant to nip him at second.

Bill Mair and Grant Morton shared the spotlight with a pair of safeties in the nine-hit attack launched by the Optimists against Dave Hart on the Hill mound.

Spitfires win Hoffman Factory championship

The way the favorites have been getting bopped over this year, it's a change to hear about a team that goes through the season to a championship without so much as a black mark against them. Such a record have the Spitfires of the Hoffman factory circuit.

They climaxed their unbeaten season by annexing the championship Monday eve in a sudden death fixture taking care of the challenging Ramblers by an 8-3 margin. The Spits connected for runs in every innings as they boomed 12 hits off Vic Langford. Vic made their burden lighter by contributing four walks to his own downfall.

Hank Vandenberg scattered six hits to record the win only permitting the Ramblers to break through for a pair of runs in the first and one in the fifth. Both teams were nipped for a number of lead-offs as umpires Hank VanZant and Al Bryson kept close tabs on their footwork.

Grant Blight demonstrated some heavy stick work with a three for three performance to spark the winners' attack.

Haskett's HASH

Let's see now. How's about a few vocal forward passes on our ice department? Main conclusion gained from the last Wednesday fanning bee by your observer Newmarket is due for intermediate A again. In or out of the Trolley League wasn't decided, though it was suggested smoke signals be sent up to see what Stouffville and Markham were up to.

Does appear too something new is to be added to our hockey drama. Newmarket is back in junior O.H.A. this winter. The three pushers of the project, Frank Johnston, Cliff Sainsbury and Gord Stephenson, at least can lay aside one of their most troublesome worries.

The O.H.A. tells your scribbler Newmarket can have a C rating. That's good. Thought was expressed that we might have to make a start in junior B. Pretty tough. Latter classification a shade under junior A calibre. Early season roll call brought 18 players answering for a try-out. More in the offing.

More on the shiny side: At least six of our local stick-handlers are due for a chance in big time. Bob "Basher" Groves is on his way to the St. Louis camp at North Bay. Murray McDonald and Bill Smith are off for a trial skate with Eddie Shore's Springfield camp at Woodstock. To date Don "Spider" Gibson, "Ortie" Thoms and Grant Firth listed last spring for a try-out haven't received their marching orders. We'll be pulling for them all to get upstairs. If it isn't their year, welcome mat will be out around the hub.

Before you get headed for a peek at the coal bin or a few trial swings with the coal shovels, time to leaf over to our challenge department. Better make a note, you mushball addicts, tonight at the S.S. pastures, junior gals have a challenge game with the senior ladies. While shouldn't be mentioning the fact, we're rootin' for the juniors. Sat on the senior gals' bench off and on this season, know every play and every signal Skipper Courtney and Coach "Peaches" VanZant use. They'll be on the way to junior gals' masterminding trio of Fred Dillman, Reg Ball and Geo. Watt in time for the big game.

Here's something else again. "Ceegars" McDonald had several opportunities to do something about the Specialty earlier in the town league campaign, also had a chance at a Jack pot question on the phone—muffed both. Now the chap with the cigar smoking habits opines, "Have Bill VanZant working at Hoffmans. Let us use Bill and we can do the Specialty in."

Barney Revell also chips a mite quieter. If we can use a full club from the tannery including Morley Cook and our Lake Simcoe battlers we can send the Specialty you know where. Sounds interesting. Anybody doing anything Saturday?

Abolition notes: It'll be an all Barrie final for the Barrie and District Ladies' title. Valley's put the double whammy on Midland in two straight. Like a bolt from the blue was the sudden passing of our senior gals with Stranmen supplying the embalming fluid. Certainly Stran-

"Mighty" had considerable help from Jack Duncan, Ivan Rudlock and Tommy Proud in this department. Jerry Code, Vic Langford and Don Brown featured the Ramblers' hitting.
